OUR STORY

National Commercial Warehouse, located in Cleveland, Ohio has been in business for over 45 years. In 1984, my uncle, Gene Wodzisz became the sole owner of National Commercial Warehouse. As the oldest of ten children, Uncle Gene kept National Commercial Warehouse a true family-run business that was guided by the principles of hard work, honesty and treating people fairly. Over the past 30+ years, most of my uncles and many other relatives have either been on the NCW payroll, or volunteered their skills when needed. In 2013, Uncle Gene announced that he no longer wished to continue running National Commercial Warehouse. This business has been woven into the fabric of our family for many years and I want to ensure its continued success. With the support of my husband Bob and the guidance of Uncle Gene, we are continuing the operation of NCW. We believe in the principles that built National Commercial Warehouse and it is our intention to carry on Uncle Gene's legacy of honesty and fairness with our customers, while consistently providing quality service.
